ORDER:

A noted Philanthropist by name Sri Challapalli Ranga Rao had established the Chellapalli Sree Rajarajeswaree Veda, Samskruta Patasala at Modekurru, East Godavari District in the year 1913. The Patasala successfully ran for more than 70 years till it was taken over by the Endowments Department. This Patasala was endowed with 20 acres of agricultural land. In addition another 20.67 acres of agricultural land was also endowed by the donor for the purpose of running a hostel, to take care of the lodging and boarding requirement of the students studying in this Patasala. After the Endowments Department took over this Patasala in 1993, they closed it down thereby defeating the objective of the donor. The Endowments Department appointed some persons as employees and the revenues that have been accruing on agricultural lands is being used to pay salaries of those persons who have no work.

2. Once upon a time, this institution ran very well and several students who passed out of this school have occupied significant positions in various fields. All such former students who are retired employees of various organizations have come together recently to form the Chellapalli Rajarajeswari Veda Samskruta Punaruddharana Trust, Modekurru, East Godavari District. This Trust is now determined to undertake revival of the old Veda and Samskruta Patasala. The Regional Joint Commissioner, Endowments Department, Rajahmundry has explained the whole case and requested the Government to take necessary for revival of the Institution.

3. Keeping the above aspects in view, Government hereby issue the following directions for restoration and renovation of Sri Chellapalli Rajarajeswaree Veda and Samskruta Patasala, Modekurru, East Godavari District:

i) The Commissioner for Endowments shall give full responsibility to Chellapalli Rajarajeswari Veda Samskruta Punaruddharana Trust, Modekurru, East Godavari District for running the Veda and Samskruta Patasala with immediate effect. The School and Hostel premises should be handed over to the Trust for this purpose.

ii) The Commissioner for Endowments shall entrust the responsibility of protecting and leasing of agricultural lands belonging to this Patasala to the Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam. The Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam shall promptly remit land lease revenues that accrue every session/year to the account of the Patasala without fail. The transfer of the revenues accrued due to leases shall be automatic and no annual permission of the Commissioner for Endowments is required every year.

iii) The Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam will have no role in running of the Patasala.

iv) The new Trust shall open an account in a Nationalised Bank and inform the same to the Commissioner for Endowments and Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam for transfer of lease amounts earned from time to time.

v) The Commissioner for Endowments shall ensure that all funds available in this Trust presently shall be only used to run the Patasala.

vi) The Trust shall run the Patasala with the funds made available by the Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam every year.

vii) The Trust shall submit an annual report on the performance of the Patasala to the Commissioner, Endowments and also the Executive Officer, Endowments, Annavaram Devasthanam.

viii) The Commissioner, Endowments will sanction funds under C.G.F. to the required extent based on the estimates prepared for undertaking renovation of the old Patasala and hostel buildings.

ix) No Endowment Official shall interfere in the administration of the Patasala. The Commissioner for Endowments can however visit the Institution whenever required.

4. The Commissioner for Endowments shall take necessary action accordingly.
